

SUNDAYS @ 3PM SERIES 2012 - 2013

ARTISTIC DIRECTORS ADAM DUREAU WAITE & DAVID KAPLAN

SEPTEMBER 23, 2012 Stravinsky's L'Histoire du Soldat (The Soldier's Tale)

Be transported to a faraway time and place, as select members of the Lyrica Chamber Orchestra convene under Adam D. Waite to perform Stravinsky's fantastical folk classic, in which a humble soldier (and his fiddle) face off against the Devil himself in a quest to win riches, love, and happiness. Live voices and narration will be performed by actors from local high schools.

NOVEMBER 4, 2012 Dvorak "3-4-5,"

with International Violinist Mark Kaplan

Hear what happens when a family of musicians combine forces - David, Edwin, and Mark Kaplan, along with star virtuosos Benjamin Capps and Rachel Lee, take us from Trio to Quartet to Quintet in an unforgettable afternoon of Dvorak's chamber music. Dumky Trio, Piano Quartet in E-flat, and the Piano Quintet in A major.

FEBRUARY 10, 2013

Alchemy Winds and Friends

Composed of Lyrica's own flutist and oboist, Tia Roper and Megan Marolf, Alchemy Winds has been lauded for refined musicianship and magnetic stage presence. The virtuosic and elegant duo will be joined by a fantastically diverse collection of instrumentalists, including harp, guitar, celeste and saxophone. Program to feature works by Villa-Lobos, Debussy and Telemann, as well as the winner of Lyrica's annual Young Composer's Competition.

Special Fundraiser for America's Grow-a-Row: Featuring the Enso String Quartet with Violist Samuel Rhodes

In collaboration with Kim Kashkashian's stellar organization Music for Food, our season concludes with a very special fundraising event by the Grammy-nominated Enso Quartet together with one of the world's most admired violists, Samuel Rhodes (of the Juilliard String Quartet). All ticket proceeds and in-concert donations go directly to America's Grow-a-Row: a not-for-profit organization that produces and collects fresh and healthy produce for pantries, soup kitchens, crisis centers, and food banks throughout New Jersey.
